REPORTS.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Directors of Domestic Missions of the South Georgia Conference, present through their Secretary, the following annual exhibit of their transactions. Gleaning and condensing from the various reports of missionaries, the leading and substantial facts are presented from which readers will make up their judgment in regard to the work attempted and actually done with very limited means:

- 1. Savannah City Mission—This mission has been served by the pastor of Wesley Church, Rev. A. M. Wynn, in connection with the regular labors of his charge. It has no church building yet, but a lot has been given, located in a very desirable position, lot worth perhaps $1,000 00. The mission has one Sunday-school, thirty scholars. Prayer meetings are held in several parts of the city. Fully one-half the labor of the pastor has been devoted to the destitute sections of the city. Missionary money appropriated in Savannah is well spent and yields an abundant return in the way of results.
- 2. Mucon City Mission (Jones Chapel)—There is one church of one hundred and one members, composed almost entirely of poor people, mostly females. They are mechanics and factory operatives. Congregations are usually good, very large Sunday nights. Mission has one Sunday school of ninety eight scholars, thirteen teachers and three officers. Mulberry Street Sunday-school has contributed largely to the support and improvement of this school, by furnishing teachers and money to carry it on. This little church (Jones Chapel) has paid only $36 00 to support the pastor, Rev. S. S. Sweet: in addition paid $24 30 to supply its Sabbath-school. The work has not greatly prospered, but it ought to be continued, as the church is located in a thickly populated part of the city.
- 3. Columbus City Mission (Broad Street Church)—This charge has been served by Rev. R. W. Dixon, has one hundred and eighty-six members, one Sunday-school, fifteen officers and teachers, one hundred and ninety-seven scholars, one hundred and ninety-nine Sunday-school requisites, eighty-three reading books. Takes one hundred copies of Sunday-school Visitor, and other church periodicals besides. The church has paid the pastor $758-75; $35-00 for the Presiding Elders, $8.00 for Bishops, $20.15 for Conference Collection. $43.00 for Missions, $4.00 for Education, $28.00 for the poor of the Church, $47.50 for the Sunday-school. In addition, the church has raised for furnishing church and parsonage, $148.38 and $101.85. Unfortunately the church is greatly embarrassed by a debt on the building, amounting to $4,500.00. It needs help yet, and ought to have it.
- 4. The Dooly Mission lies in the southern portion of Dooly county, and in Worth county. It has three churches, one camp-ground. No figures are given that indicate success. Served by Rev. Edwin 1. Smith. Let it be discontinued.
- 5. Bryan Mission, in Bryan county, is said to be in an improving condition, which, considering the length of time it has been a mission field, we are glad to hear. There are three appointments in the mission, and large congregations, seventy-two members, seven of whom were added the present year. Paid the pastor $69.00 and boarded him and his horse. Some attention paid to the periodicals of the church, a hopeful sign.
- 6. Millen Mission lies in Seriven county has three organized churches, comprising one hundred and seven members. No membership at Millen, a few at Paramore's Hill, not yet organized. The mission has raised for the pastor and Presiding Elder, $128.30, and besides has boarded the pastor. Sixteen dollars and ninety cents were collected for missionary purposes and $16.00 for Conference collection. Nearly $350.00 have been raised for building and repairing churches. The work is prosperous every way, and the fact is specially to be noted, that almost universally family prayer is observed by heads of families. The people desire to be organized into a self-sustaining circuit, and with the addition of Scarboro' Church, they will of themselves support a single man. There have been thirty conversions during the year, twenty-two accessions. Served by Rev. R. W. Rogers.

- 7. Wilcox Mission was served by Rev. R. M. Booth. It lies in Wilcox county. The missionary has worked faithfully and successfully, has organized three new churches, received thirty-eight new members. Two new churches will soon be ready for use. Mission paid the pastor, $57.85. Presiding Elder, $6.00. There are six organized churches in the mission and room for more.
- 8. Echols and Lowndes Mission, served by Rev. Alex. P. Wright. He reports the charge much improved, spiritually and financially. A gracious revival of religion resulted in thirty-nine accessions, forty adults baptized, twenty-six infants. Paid the pastor $537 20, including rent of parsonage. Paid Presiding Elder $65 00; Bishops, $6 00; Missions, $12 00; Conference Collection, $12 00. This charge desires to be elevated to the dignity of a circuit and to be known no more as a mission, a request which certainly ought to be granted.
- 9. Moultrie Mission was served by Rev C. E. Boland. The charge is improving slowly, twenty-five members added, $25 00 paid the pastor, $16 95 missionary money. It has one hundred and sixty-four members, twenty-five baptized during the year, and two infants. There are six churches.
- 10. Eastman Mission, in Dodge and Laurens counties, served by Rev. D. G. Pope. It has six churches, paid the preacher $17635. Conference collection, $1000; Bishops, $300. Two Sunday-schools, officers and teachers, eight. Membership, 196; adults baptized, 28; infants, 2; members added, 42. The mission has improved, but needs great improvement in its shape and size.
- 11. Ochlochonee Mission is weak numerically, financially and spiritually—a very candid statement of the missionary—has from five to seven appointments. The work has improved and fifteen have been received on profession, eleven by transfer, $56.75 collected on mission; houses of worship much needed, are under way. Served by Rev. J. W. Jackson, who thinks the mission should be continued.
- 12. Camden Mission, in Camden county, on the coast, was served by Rev. T. S. Armistead. It has five churches valued at $700 00; a parsonage at $300 00. There has been an increase of twenty members net; nine children baptized, eleven adults. The mission has improved. Paid the pastor $188 03; Presiding Elder, $36 25; Bishops, $4 00; Missionary money, $2 50; Conference collection, $2 50, and $3 00 for Orphans' Home, the first time the matter has been mentioned in these statistics.
- 13. Worth Mission, served by Rev. S. N. Tucker. There are four churches, one hundred and seventy-four members, seventy-four received during the year. Baptized, thirty-nine adults, three infants. There are two Sunday-schools, sixty-three scholars. Mission paid the preacher, $154; Presiding Elder, $4500; Bishops, $400; for missions, $2525; Confercollection, $1200. The work is prosperous and deserves continuance.
- 14. Jonesville Mission was served by Rev. H. Andrews—has three appointments, eighty-four members; three adults baptized, eight infants. Paid the pastor $85 39; Conference collection, $5 00. It has one small Sunday-school, fifteen scholars.

15. Canoochee Mission, served by Rev. W. J. Flanders. Paid the paster $10.10; Foreign Missions, $6.00; has only ten members, one church worth $250.00; two Sunday-schools, one church paper taken. A very feeble work this, and needs continued help from the missionary treasury.

From the foregoing, it will be evident to all, that a large mission field still opens to our vision in Georgia. Much more of the same kind of territory and people are in this Empire State, humiliating as may be the confession. Feople are poor and illiterate; adverse influences and agencies operate against the progress of the Methodistic type of religion among them, and those more able and more enlightened should extend a helping hand. The means at the disposal of the Board have been a little less than $5,000 00, after deducting forty per cent. for the Foreign Missionary field. The missionaries will be paid only fifty-eight cents in the dollar of their claims, a painful fact to be recorded again to the discredit of the Church at large. Hereafter it is believed there will be an increased payment, and every one should labor to pay these small appropriations to poor and deserving men to the last cent. If this cannot be done, then there must be an abandonment of some of the territory now compassed, and the appropriations be restricted to our means.

The collections for Domestic Missions are to be taken early in the year—in February and March—and in every case forwarded to the treasurer, Rev. George G. N. MacDonell, Macon, Georgia. If this is done, generally, the treasurer can probably pay at least half the claim early in the year—a great end, if it can be reached. It is an imperative necessity to comply with this decision of the Board—some money can be had, the balance taken in subscription, payable at any convenient time. Missionaries cannot afford to wait until Conference, no more than others can, and the less so, as they get but little from their own people. Credit is a dangerous thing, and everybody cannot command it.

At this time the church proposes to make a new departure in missionary affairs. The late General Conference of the Church has ordered two distinet collections to be taken during the year—one for Conference missions, the other for the foreign work. It was deemed a matter of the greatest moment that these collections should not be consolidated, and it is positively forbidden. A preacher who combines them now should hold himself responsible for the entire amount of his missionary assessments. The General Conference exhibited the greatest possible interest in the matter of missions. It was the absorbing question of the session, and received the most protracted and earnest consideration. Evidently the dominant sentiment of the church was, that too little regard was had to the demands of the world, the Pagan world, upon our church. The doings of our church in the foreign field are painfully small, and hardly worthy of naming. The church has determined to do better. Her preachers and people must read, pray, think, talk and give. Let sermons, carefully, elaborately prepared, be delivered on the subject-let them abound in facts gleaned from the mission fields of the world; let them be presented in glowing, burning speech, to large assemblies of the people, and then money will come, not in drops but in streams and copious showers.

Christianity is essentially a missionary system—it only lives as it grows and expands. Nor is there any antagonism between the Home and Foreign fields, as many are ready to suppose.

When shall we hear the last of that sarcasm of Randolph, of Roanoke? "The Greeks are at our doors!" So they are, and will ever be, and in greater numbers, if we do not seek to find them BEYOND our doors. If Christianity does not go abroad, it must die at home. Selfishness is the bane of the world; to cure that, philanthropy, broad and expansive, must be caltivated.

There is no antagonism—the doctrine of Chalmers, the expulsive power of a new affection, does not apply here—the cause is one, the means and ends the same. Systematic effort in pursuance of a fixed plan and purpose, will arouse a slumbering church, open closed coffers, and inspire zeal in young men that will result in grand achievements.

Great ends are not the effect of accident, but of faith and energy. Never were the facilities for the spread of the gospel better than now. Commercial and political impediments are well nigh all gone, and the whole wide world is open to the entering apostles of Jesus. Mexico lies so near us it hardly seems a foreign land, and it is at this time a peculiarly inviting field, promising a large yield of results. The church has entered it, and the prospect is good; let special attention be directed to this department of our work.

China, with her teeming millions, calls; Japan. also, and everywhere there is a pressing demand for godly men. full of faith and zeal, to preach "the unsearchable riches of Christ." Shall they go? Let those who have the means answer, as they must answer God.

Every one should consider, not how little will do, but how much can be done. Preachers must press the claims of God and humanity, and our people should be trained into that elevated moral statue that makes Jesus Christ and his religion the highest object of their affections, and the knowledge of the Lord the grand panacea for all earth's woes.

The love of God is to the moral universe what gravitation is to the stellar worlds; it is the great primary regulator of all the great forces that keep up harmony, and cause glory to shine forth in all creation. This mighty power needs diffusion. There is discord and ruin where love does not reign, and it is the grand purpose of the gospel of Jesus to extend the virtues of this affection through all the vast domain of heaven and earth.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

Your committee, in submitting their report, think it unnecessary to say anything touching the vast importance of education in itself. But we deem it proper hereby earnestly to urge upon Methodists everywhere a hearty in dersement of, and persistent adherence to the plan of denominational schools and colleges. It is not so much learning, as sanctified learning, that the age in which we live demands. Develop the mind at the expense of the affections and faculties of the soul, and you make a moral monster! You do that which will prove a curse rather than a blessing to the world.

Now while we do not hold that this is a necessary sequence of educational training other than the church's jurisdiction, yet we are fully persuaded that the proper and the highest aims of education will be most readily and surely attained under the instruction of Christian men, and the fostering care of the Church of God. If we would have our children to grow up religiously, we must see to it that they are religiously educated. If we would have them become good and true Methodists, we must place them under Methodist training. This can be done only under the system of denominational schools and colleges. Our Church has been moving vigorously in this matter during the past decade, and we regard it as a move in the right direction.

Perhaps never before has she manifested greater interest in her institutions of learning, and while our educational interests in common with all other enterprises of the country have been embarrassed by the peculiar financial troubles through which we have been passing, yet your committee are gratified to learn, from the various reports placed in our hands, that the institutions under our own supervision are all in successful operation, with good promise of increasing prosperity. The report from Wesleyan Female College shows a patronage of one hundred and fifty-a decided improvement on the last collegiate year--fifty-five of these young ladies are boarders in the College, most of them members of the Church, and all of them under systematic, religious training. The Faculty is well organized, and competent in every respect for their delicate and responsible duties. The election of Rev. W. C. Bass, to fill the position left vecant by the resignation of Dr. Myers, will doubtless give very great satisfaction to all who know hun, while the choice of Rev. W. F. Cook, of the North Georgia Conference, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Dr. Bass, was, in the estimation of your committee, a wise one, and should receive the hearty indorsement of this Conference. In the language of the chairman of the Board of Trustees, "his known ability, his popularity in the bounds of his own Conference, his literary attainments, and his experience as a teacher, all seem to indicate him as the proper man for the position." It only remains for the Methodists of Georgia to rally to the support of this, the oldest and shall we not say the best, of female colleges, to guarantee her continued prosperity and increasing usefulness.

The report from Emory College we regret to see indicates a decline in patronage. The causes of this, however, we are gratified are not inherent in the institution itself, indeed have been already for the most part removed. With her present able and efficient Faculty, her commodious and comfortable buildings, her healthy location, her religious influence, her glorious antecedents, by the blessings of God, and the earnest prayers and hearty co-operation of every lover of Methodism, she cannot fail to become for all time a grand centre of sanctified learning.

We would call especial attention to the endowment plan proposed and adopted at the last session of this Conference. It was then resolved that the preachers distribute circulars touching this matter, to be placed in their hands, and report to this body the amounts contributed in their respective charges to this specific object, and that the Statistical Secretary prepare a column in the annual statistical blacks for such contributions. It is apprehended that this resolution has been forgotton. We are all at fault in this matter. Let us amend, and by persevering zeal in this direction put our time honored institutions of learning beyond all contingency.

The report from Andrew Female College, located at Cuthbert, shows the matriculation of one hundred and thirty-three pupils, forty-three of whom are boarders in the College. We are satisfied that the general condition of this institution was never better, and its future prospects never more promising than at present. President A. H. Flewellen, after more than a year's test, has proven himself to be the right man in the right place. She is doing a good work for the Church in that section, and is in every way worthy of coofidence and patronage.

LeVert Female College and Collinsworth Justitute, the first under the presidency of Rev. V. E. Manget, and the other under Rev. John T. Mc-baughlin, both located in and near the village of Talbotton, noted for its morality and healthfulness, are valuable interests of the Church, and should be footered with vigilant care.

The Dawson High School is reported to be in vigorous operation.

To this committee is also referred the matter of the education of young men for the ministry. We look upon this as a vastly important enterprise of the Church. The time has come when there is positive need of an educated ministry. The Church expects it; the general diffusion of knowledge and the reculiar phases of modern infidelity demand it. Many young men who feel that they are called to the work of the ministry are greatly embarrassed by their deficiency in this regard, and yet are unable to pay for an education. The obligation is laid upon the Church to remove the difficulty, that more laborers may go forth in the vineyard of the Lord. We have done something, but by no means enough, in this direction. The assessment on the Conference for this purpose aggregated $900 00, of which amount only $286 50 has been collected, showing a deficiency of $613 50. There is fault somewhere. We have four young men dependent upon this fund, and there are others who need help. We earnestly urge upon the brethren increased diligence in this matter.

In concluding this report, we recommend that the Presiding Bishop appoint the usual committees to visit our institutions of learning, and that he especially urge them to increased fidelity in the discharge of their duties as such. We recommend also that the Presiding Bishop appoint Rev. O. L. Smith President, and Rev. I. S. Hopkins Professor, of Emory College; and Rev. W. C. Bass President, and Rev. C. W. Smith Professor, of Wesleyan Female College.

J. O. A. COOK, Chairman pro tem.

Resolved, That this Conference having learned that the Presiding Elders of the North, Sonth Georgia and Florida Conferences, at their meeting held in Oxford at last Commencement, determined to raise $30,000 00 to endow a Professorship, to be called the Bishop Pierce Professorship, do ratify the action of the meeting of the Presiding Elders, and hereby pledge our hearty co-operation to make their determination a success.

The Board of Education recommend the following assessments on the various districts, and recommend that these several amounts be collected by the Presiding Elders, and that they be specially charged with this important work:

Savannah District	$185	00
Macon District	185	00
Columbus District
Dawson District	100	00
Thomasville District	50	00

REPORT ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

Your committee beg leave to make the following report:

While we do not recognize any decline in the magnitude of the Sunday-school interest, we do not deem it necessary to submit an elaborate essay upon the subject. And we therefore call attention to a mere statistical review. We report:

•	1874.	1873.	Increase.
Number of Schools	290	278	12
Officers and Teachers	1,819	1,724	95
Scholars		11.201	1,125
Sunday-school Requisites	14,414	13,799	4,615
Volumes in Library		12,388	670
Mission Money	$2,304 96	$1,419 60
Money raised for our own Schools			$2,872 - 56
Joined Church from Sunday schools by c	onversion		416

While these statistics gratify us, we would that they could be quadrupled by the next Conference. These figures point to the fact that there is very much land to be possessed; and at the same time indicate the capacity of the Church to go up and possess it. If we can rouse our own hearts, and rally all the dormant energies of the Church, another year may witness a larger, richer, and more glorious harvest.

Resolved, 1. That it is the duty of every member of this Conference to stir up the gafe of God that is in him in this direction, and labor for and look immediately to the conversion of the children.

2. That we are gratified at the reappointment of Dr. A. G. Havgood, Sunday School Secretary, and approve his plan to review the Evangelists in the Uniform Lesson system during the next four years.

3. That special attention be directed to the organization of Sunday-school Missionary Societies, and that great care be taken in securing correct statisties in regard to missionary money collected from such organizations, and of the number of conversions in Sunday-schools.

REPORT ON ORPHANS' HOME.

The Board of Trustees of the South Georgia Conference Orphans' Home begs leave to submit to the Conference the following report:

The Trustees have had before them the report of Rev. Samuel Anthony,

Agent, from which they make the following abstracts:

The report covers, in detail, his transactions for a period of two years, that is, for the years 1873 and 1874.

1st. He reports upon the property of the Home. The house of ten rooms and ninety five acres of land, with a small amount of common furniture, all in bad condition was transferred to him as agent of the Board, January 12th, 1873, all estimated to be worth $5.000 00. To this he has added repairs and improvements, making the value of the real estate now, at least estimate, $8,000 00. He has also purchased additional necessary furniture, wagons, a horse and some stock, tools and implements to the farm, to the value of $850 00. So that at this date, the property is in good condition, and altogether, is worth $8,850 00.

2d. He reports the number of orphans present in the institution to be seven girl, and fifteen boys, the ages of whom range from four to eleven years; that the children are being carefully cared for as to all physical wants and comforts; that those of them of sufficient age are being sent to both day and Sunday-schools; that the boys are being taught to do light work in the garden and form, and the girls in all the common domestic employments and that the Home is being managed and conducted socially, industrially, and religiously, in accordance with the practical management proper to be seen in any well ordered, plain, Christian family of the State. He reports that he has appointed, as Superintendent, Mr. D. Erwin, who is to do all the garden and form work, with the aid of the boys; and Mrs. Erwin as Matron, who conducts the management of the children and the business of the house, each of them at a salary of $20.00 per month; and he commends their management to the establishment.

3d. He reports the cash receipts of his agency during these two years from collections (both direct and upon subscriptions) to be about $6,000,00, and that subscriptions taken in the same time amount to about $50,000,00, and that the money collected has been invested in the repairs and improvements of the real estate and expended in the purchase of additional furniture for the house, of stack and implements for the farm, and of provisions and clothing for the household, and in payment of insurance and traveling expenses, and of the salarys of the agent and of household officers.

There are no debis hanging over the institution, except a small amount that may have occurred in supplying the daily wants of the Home on ac-could, for the payment of which the agent has the means in hand.

The following extract from his report the Trustees deem it proper to give: The friends of ori hans have done a good deal for them by sending to the Home, clothing, quitts, comforts, blankets, toweld, sheets, second-hand apparei, socks, etc., and occasionally small amounts of provisions.

Now, when we consider the times, and that we commenced without a cent and under discouragements, and see what we have done and how much we have in the Home and how many helpless and needy boys and girls we are sheltering and raising, we hope, to be useful and happy. we are ready to say, "See what God has wronght! it is wonderful, and to His holy name be the praise!" Your agent sees no decline in the sympathies of the public heart in behalf of the Home. Many have not paid their subscriptions, but they say they will, and even do more. As you know, I lost a long time from the work from sickness, but God raised me almost from death to preach, pray, travel and visit often and much, and to many thousands of people over the land.

In concluding this report, the Trustees, with feelings of great satisfaction at what has been accomplished in the past, and with prayer to God and much solicitude for the future advancement of this truly Christian enterprise, commend this Orphan Home to the Conference as an object worthy of its care and deserving well the active co-operation and assistance of every member in building up and sustaining it. By order of the Board.

W. D. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

FASTING AND PRAYER.

The first Fridays in May and September are set apart as days of fasting and prayer for a general revival of religion, for the blessings of God upon our institutions of learning, for the promotion of our missionary operations and for the general welfare of the Church.

MEMOIRS.

REV WILLIAM W GRIFFIN

Was born in Putnam county, Georgia. When but a small boy his widowed mother removed with him to DeKalb county, Georgia, where he continued to reside until he was grown up to manhood. What were his advantages in youth we have not been able to ascertain; this, however, is not material. Being the eldest son of a widowed mother, on whom devolved the whole responsibility of training her children, it is very probable that in early life he learned much of the cares and duties of home life.

In 1832, he was married to Miss A. C. Veal, daughter of John Veal, of DeKalb county, Georgia, with whom he lived in holy, happy union for more than forty years.

He was born of the Spirit at Rock Chapel, in DeKalb county, and united with the M. E. Church in 1838. His conversion was of that quick, clear, demonstrative type, much more common in those than in these days. Whether brother Griffin's conversion had aught to do with his after experience, or not, it matters but little; it is sufficient to know that that experience, was bright, cheerful and satisfactory throughout most if not the whole of his Christian career. Having been called into the kingdom of God, through faith in Christ, it was not the will of God that he should stop there. During the year 1839 he felt called of God to preach the gospel of Jesus to dying men. He obeyed the call—asked for authority to preach the Word, which was granted him. Feeling convinced that he could be more useful as an itinerant than as a local preacher, he applied for and obtained admission into the Georgia Conference in that same year-1839.

His first appointment was in Liberty county, Georgia. He soon became afflicted with rheumatism, from which he suffered until his death, although he continued an active itinerant until 1862, when, for want of sufficient physical ability to do the work of an itinerant preacher, he superannuated. Most of his labors as a traveling preacher were performed in the bounds of the Florida Conference, which, up to the time of his superannuation, embraced all of South Georgia. When South Georgia was retroceded to the Georgia Conference, he came with that territory into the South Georgia Conference, a superannuated preacher, and continued in that relation until his death, which occurred at Stone Mountain, Georgia, September 29, 1874.

A good, holy and useful man and minister of the gospel of Christ is gone, leaving behind him a "good name," which is "better than precious ointment," and "rather to be chosen than great riches."

His large heritage of afflictions were greatly augmented during the last two or three years of his life. For a long while before his death he was confined to his room, and for a great portion of the time was entirely helpless. The death of his wife, some fifteen months before his own, fell heavily upon him. She had been an angel of mercy. She died suddenly, but grace sustained him in that sad hour. He rallied, and was spiritually cheerful and happy. Through all his painful afflictions he always spoke of himself as happy, and only waiting for the summons to depart and be at rest.

On a few occasions he was carried in a chair to church, and it was, perhaps, on his last visit to the church, that he sat in the altar and addressed the children of the Sabbath-school. Thus, when nearing his reward, and out of the midst of utter physical helplessness, did he obey that divine command, "Feed my lambs."

REV WILLIAM B. McHAN.

Our beloved brother, Rev. William B. McHan, a pure Christian and a devoted and useful minister of the gospel of Christ, departed this life and entered into his rest on the 18th day of January, in the forty-sixth year of his age. But little is known of brother McHan's life, outside of his Conference history, and during most of this he was the subject of such deep afflictions, that he was not able to leave on the records of earth that which it was his heart and purpose to leave, but his record is in heaven, and perhaps the more glorious there, by virtue of his disappointed hopes here.

He was born and reared in the State of North Carolina. From the best information at our command, we judge his opportunities for culture and improvement in early life were very limited. Taking into account the mengreness of his early advantages, and the severe and protracted afflictions of his manhood years, the wonder is not that he did so little, but that he was able to accomplish so much.

He was happily converted to God, and joined the M. E. Church, South, in Lumpkin county, Georgia, in the year 1844. Not long after this he was licensed to preach. He was admitted on trial into the Georgia Conference, at Augusta, Georgia, in January, 1849. There is no record of his first appointment. In 1851, he was admitted into full connection, and ordained deacon. In 1853, he was ordained elder. For eleven years, except one or two years or parts of years, when his health was extremely feeble, he traveled circuits and missions, with great acceptability and much usefulness. At the close of 1860, he was superannuated, on account of his very feeble health. He remained on the suprranmated roll, except one or two years, until his death.

It is difficult, yea, it is almost impossible to form a proper estimate of the life and character of such a man as brother McHan. Without those shining talents which attract the attention, excite the admiration, and win the applause of the world; dwelling in comparative obscurity and being so much afflicted, made his influence much like certain undercurrents in the physical world, which are always felt, but rarely recognized. Although he had not shining talents, he had zeal and power. His heart was warm with love for his Master, and his zeal for the cause of Christ was bounded only by his strength; yea, it went beyond his strength. He longed to be in the field with the armor on, waging incessant war with the adversary. His zeal for Christ, and love for souls led him, at times, to believe that he was able to take an appointment, and would therefore ask to be taken off the superannuated roll and made effective. It is not remembered, however, that he was ever clamorous in making this request. When he made his request and gave his reasons for it, there was an end of the matter, so far as he was concerned. If his brethren differed with him and continued him on the noneffective list, he did not impugn their motives, and become sour in spirit toward them, but cheerfully submitted to his lot without murmur or complaint. He was genial and social in his intercourse with his fellow-men, particularly so with his brethren of the ministry. All the members of the Conference and all other ministers who knew him will readily call to mind the warm greetings and cordial welcomes of brother McHan on all occasions when and where it was their fortune to meet him. He bore his many and severe afflictions with becoming fortitude and submission to the divine will. In his sufferings the grace of God was well nigh, if not quite as much magnified as in his labors. He passed under the rod with such humility, submission, patience and confidence in God that those who beheld him said, "See how God is glorified in the sufferings of his servant."

While, as a preacher, he was more zealous than gifted, he was one of that large class of preachers who accomplish as much by a warm heart, devotion to duty, and zealous untiring effort as many of another class who possess superior gifts. His preaching was "good to the use of edifying and ministering grace unto the hearers." He delighted to preach Jesus and feed on the word which he offered to others.

Though he was for so long a time a superannuated preacher, he never failed except through unavoidable hinderance, to attend the annual sessions of the Conference. He always took a deep interest in the deliberations and labors of the Conference. Ever feeling a deep interest in the welfare of his brethren, he was ready to "weep with those who wept and to rejoice with those who rejoiced." That brother McHan was faultless, we dare not assert, but whatever his faults were, they were not such as marred either the beauty or force of his Christian and ministerial character. His piety was deep and constant. His love for the Church of Christ was never failing.

Owing to severe family afflictions, he was not able to attend the last session of the Conference, but his heart was there. About the close of the Conference, he was attacked with Typhoid fever, with which he lingered about a month and then fell on sleep and was gathered unto his fathers, after giving repeated and the most satisfactory assurances of his readiness to meet death.
